

FALL IN LOVE WITH TREES

Trees provide shade and privacy, increase property values, and absorb dangerous CO₂. Learn why trees are a must for yards and how best to care for them.

Four powerful programs... FREE! Reeves-Reed Arboretum, 7:30pm

▶ Why Trees Matter More than Ever - Thurs 9/12

Learn why we can't live without trees, presented by Marc Montefusco, Horticulture Director at Reeves-Reed. Welcome from Summit Mayor Nora Radest. Grounds tour at 6:45pm.

▶ Tree Care Tips from the Pros - Thurs 9/26

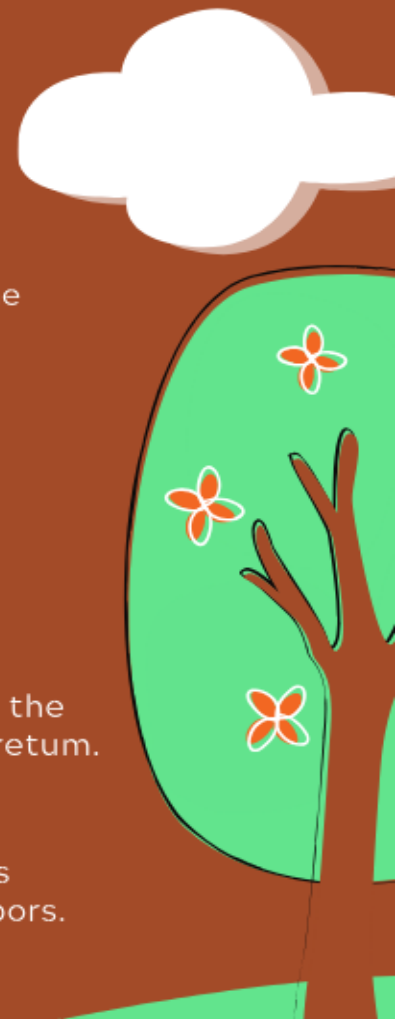

Jason Grabosky, Rutgers Urban Forestry Program
Matt Rodda, Bartlett Tree Experts
John Linson, City of Summit Forester
Frank Gonzalez, Frank's Tree Service

▶ Selecting Trees that Thrive - Thurs 10/10

Learn to build a landscape that includes the right trees in the right places, from Vincent Simeone, Planting Fields Arboretum.

▶ Trees and Neighbors - Thurs 10/24

Attorney Rachel Roat discusses laws governing private trees and offers strategies for resolving disputes between neighbors.

SPACE IS LIMITED. RESERVE A SPOT NOW!

Visit Reeves-ReedArboretum.org to register or learn more.

Reeves-Reed Arboretum, 165 Hobart Ave., Summit, NJ

Presented by

